MEMORANDUM FOR: [REDACTED]

VIA: [REDACTED]

SUBJECT: CIA Representation on the Orientation and Training Advisory Group

25X1A

1. On 29 January 1976 the first meeting of the Orientation and Training Advisory Group (OTAG) of the USIB Human Resources Committee was held with [REDACTED] attending as the CIA representative. A copy of the minutes is attached.

2. The membership of the OTAG in almost all cases consists of personnel with direct responsibilities in the training field. Col. [REDACTED] as an example, is the Director of the Attache Department of the Defense Intelligence School, and Mr. McWilliams is the FBI training officer. The apparent focus of the OTAG will be on improvement of the collection capabilities of overt collectors in all agencies of government, greater inter-agency cross fertilization in training techniques, and development of new subjects, for training of overt collectors.

3. It is believed appropriate that an OTR representative be designated as the CIA representative to the OTAG, with [REDACTED] remaining in an observer status. This has been discussed informally with Deputy Chief, OTR who agreed and indicated that he would designate [REDACTED] DC, OTR for Operations Training (and up to now a [REDACTED] he, himself as the representative, should a decision be made that CIA representation would be provided by OTR.

4. It is, therefore, recommended that you seek to have OTR designated as the office responsible for furnishing CIA representation to the OTAG with [REDACTED] remaining as an observer.

ROOM NO.	BUILDING
REMARKS: I talked with [REDACTED] about OTAG. [REDACTED] Staff, vetoed the suggestion that an OTR body should be represented on the OTAG. [REDACTED] will continue to attend meetings and will alert us when questions clearly in OTR's bailiwick arise. The issue of an OTR tie-in into OTAG is thus shelved but not dead.
